

*Another Fine A-CRAP Production:

Greetings! Spring has sprung in these parts, and that means it's time for another almost annual

Ranch Walk-About at John and Cris' place. Yay!

For those of you who are new to this shindig, we get some folks together on a (hopefully) beautiful day and spend a few hours wandering around the ranch, looking at wildlife and grass and water and trees. Maybe even see a cow. This is a chance for you to meet some of your awesome neighbors and talk about food and farming and all kinds of other fascinating stuff.

When: Saturday, April 21 at 11:00 AM.

Where: (Ranch address here). Note: (Special directions here and..watch for a flag or a balloon or something. Don't panic. It's easy to find.)

What to Bring: A lawn chair (otherwise your seat will a bale of hay), rubber boots, weather-appropriate clothes, and that's all! We will provide a simple meal after the walk.

Finally, please RSVP so we know how much food to prepare. Best way is via (John's email here). Alternate: (John's phone number here).

We really look forward to seeing all of you!

John and Cris

(Kathy provided the logo after the fact. Let her know if you need one too.
If she has a spare moment, she might be able to help.)